Paying for a VMI Education

At VMI, we believe financial aid is an investment in our cadets and their futures.

At VMI we make your education dollars go further; there are grants, loans, merit and need-based scholarships, ROTC and athletic scholarships, veterans benefits, and other ways financial aid can help.

Over 89% of cadets receive some form of aid.

53% of cadets qualified for need-based financial aid.

26% of cadets received ROTC scholarships.

11% of cadets received athletic scholarships.

The Financial Aid Process at VMI

1. Apply for admission to VMI
2. Submit VMI Financial Aid Application by March 1
3. Submit your FAFSA at fafsa.gov by March 1
4. If appointed, you will be notified of your award
