

2013 Endowed Scholarships

Class of 2013 Memorial Scholarship

Established in 2013, this scholarship was initiated through the generosity of the Class of 2013. The Class hopes that the Scholarship will memorialize the life and service of their deceased Brother Rats and ensure that future generations of VMI cadets are afforded the same unique educational experience that all the Brother Rats in '13 shared.

Captain Benjamin R. Cross 2013 Scholarship

This Scholarship was created to honor the life and service of Captain Benjamin R. Cross, U.S. Marine Corps, VMI Class of 2013 who paid the ultimate sacrifice on August 5, 2017 during a MV-22 mishap while landing aboard the USS GREEN BAY, during the 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit Summer Patrol, in the Coral Sea off the coast of Australia and while serving as a Marine Aviator with the VMM-265 (REIN) "Dragons" at the Marine Corps Air Station Futenma, Okinawa, Japan. The purpose of the Scholarship is to provide financial aid to a cadet who is a rising First or Second Classman of good character and academic skills who is commissioning into the U.S. Marine Corps.

John A. Evans 2013 Memorial Scholarship

Established in 2010 by Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Evans '80 to honor the memory of their son, John, who was a member of the VMI Class of 2013. The Scholarship will be awarded to deserving cadets in the Navy ROTC program (Marine Option), who strongly seek a commission in the United States Marine Corps and are not recipients of a ROTC Scholarship.
